

Privacy Policy

NP Care Services believes that every person has the right to privacy.

When using our website, services and/or products, you may give us information. NP Care Services may ask for and maintain information on its visitors and customers to provide a better, more personal experience. NP Care Services will never sell or trade any of the information accumulated through the course of business about web visitors, clients or other contacts.

Information Gathered

The NP Care Services system may gather information such as what kind of browser a visitor is on, what operating system they are using, their IP address, and their clickstream information (for example, which pages they have viewed and how long they have been there). Note that information is only gathered while the visitor is on the website in question -- in this case NP Care Services monitors how a visitor arrives at the website, but cannot and will not gather information about other sites the visitor has been on.

At times, NP Care Services may ask for more specific contact information to be entered as a means of registration before accessing a certain part of the site. NP Care Services uses this information to understand its visitors and, with permission, to provide visitors with updates on the company and its products. A visitor may always option to not enter any information about themselves.

Usages of Info

NP Care Services may automatically receive and record information on our server logs from your browser including your IP address, cookie information, time stamp (time page accessed as well as time spent per web page), as well as the specific pages you requested.

The only time NP Care Services, its partners, subsidiaries, agents, officers or employees would provide specific information to anyone is if required to do so by law, and even then only to the proper authorities.

Reservation of Rights

NP Care Services reserves the right to change this privacy statement at any time with 30 days notice being posted to the NP Care Services website.

COPYRIGHT LAW AND THE WORLD WIDE WEB

Under copyright law a web page is defined as the unique underlying design of that web page and its contents, including:

- Links
- Original Text & Copy
- Graphics
- Audio
- Video
- List of sites compiled by an individual or organization
- Html and/or other unique markup language sequences
- All other unique elements that make up the original nature of the page

Whenever creating a web page, you cannot:

- Put the contents of another person's or organization's web site on your web page.
- Copy and/or paste information together from various online resources to create your own document. You can quote and/or paraphrase in limited amounts, so long as you give credit to the original source and the location(s) of the source(s).
- Copy and paste another site's list of resources on your own web page.
- Some organizations are happy to let you use their logos with permission as it provides free advertising. They may want to know who is using their logos and for what purpose their logos are being used. All sites wanting to use logos may not be approved as the purpose(s) of using the logos may not properly align with the purpose(s) of the copyright owner(s).
